BROKE JAIL. -On last Sunday night, four men named Hardin, Moore, Hackett and Dunwan, committed to the Allegany County ail, to await trial at April court, for robbery escaped from prison, and left for parts unknown. They got possession of a common hisel, with which they succeeded in making an apperture of about 15 inches square, through their cell wall, opening into the jail vard. After getting through the wall, a rope was made of their bedding, to one end of which was attached a carpet sack, filled with brick which had been displaced in making the hole-this was thrown over the top of the outer wall, about 20 feet in height, where it aught against the coping of the outsideby this rope they clambered to the top, and by he same descended to the ground, when they decamped.—Cumberland Civilian.

ELOQUENT SERMON .- We were highly pleased Sunday night last with a sermon delivered by Rev. W. W. Bennett, (formerly the presiding elder of this circuit) at the Union Station Methodist Church. It was couched in beautiful language, and so plain that all who heard it could readily understand its truths. The audience was a large one and paid the deepest attention during the delivery of the sermon. The congregation worshipping at tee to report to the House, the Senate bill rethis church should consider themselves fortunate in thus having so able and devout a minister. - Richmond Dispatch.

FATAL ACCIDENT .- On Sunday morning last, an elderly white man named Hugh B. Boy I do not like to meddle with other people's affairs, but feeling a considerable interest in the Washington Turnpike, (or at least I did, before it was nearly ruined by the Railroad) I took the trouble, recently, to ascertain the state of the turnpike as affected by the pier of the Hampshire Railroad, and find (the turnpike having altogether 100 feet) that the pier stands 20 feet within the western limit of the 100 feet; and that the graveled portion of the turnpike now occupies 22 feet; leaving 19 feet between this graveled and travelled part of the pier, or 39 feet between the east side of the said graveled part and the east line of the 100 feet. In other words, there is 41 feet left for ordinary carriage travel, and 39 feet for the Railroad; which is enough for at least four rail tracks, and for five wagons to pass the point at the same time. The length of the pier up and down the turnpike is 40 feet. QUERO. down the turnpike is 40 feet.

In the Senate, yesterday, Mr. Seward offered a resolution calling on the President for any correspondence that may have transpired between this Government and that of CONGRESS.

The bill authorizing the commutation of Indian anunities into money, for agricultural and other purposes, was passed. Mr. Doolittle gave notice that he would at an early day offer a proposition for the relief of Com. Paulding, against whom suits were pending in New York city, for his conduct in the Walker Nicaraguan affair.

On motion of Mr. Gwin, the Pacific Railroad bill was taken up. A number of amendments were offered-some of which were adopted, and others re-In the House of Representatives, a bill for changing the names of the steamers America and Canada, and allowing them to receive registration anew, was received from the Senate and passed. Mr. Millson, attempted to introduce a resolution instructing the Commerce Commitpealing the fishing bounty laws, but objection the views of the minority of the Territories Committee, relative to the admission of Oregon, be authorized; agreed to.

Mr. Cobb, from the Committee on Public Lands, reported a bill to amend the act for the compensation of registers and receivers of land offices, by which the maximum of their commissions and salary shall not be allowed to exceed $2,500 per annum; or that rate, if the officer shall not serve a full year. In explaining the purpose of the bill, Mr.

Cobb said that it did not effect the reduction of present salaries, where the officers are honest, but that it will operate to prevent peculation successfully carried on under the existing law. The bill was passed. Mr. Cobb, from the same commtttee, reported a bill reviving and continuing in force the acts passed in 1836, '42 and '54 for satisfying bounty land warrants, &c., without limitation as to time; passed.

Also a bill amending an act providing for the repayment of moneys paid to the United States for lands erroneously sold by the Government; passed.

Also, a bill allowing persons who may have settled upon the 16th and 26th sections of land, (which are by law set apart for school purposes,) before the same were surveyed, to pre-empt that section passed.

Also, bills to authorize the Legislature of Nebraska to have the 16th and 36th sections of public lands set apart in that State for public schools; and providing for the surve of the western boundary of Minnesota; both referred to Committee of the Whole.

Mr. Sherman stated that he was in receipt of communications containing grave charges against certain civil officers connected with the Navy Department.

These consist, first, of favoritism and violation of law in awarding certain contracts. and, secondly, the expenditure of the public monies for partizan purposes, instead of the objects for which it was appropriated. The latter charge is brought by a Mr. D. B. Allen of New York, and has reference to alleged abuses in the New York and Philadelphia navy-yards.

In consideration of these allegations, Mr. S. moved that a select committee of three be appointed to investigate the matter, and that

The Chairman next introduced to the audience the Rev. J. C. Granberry, of Washington City, who made a brief but eloquent and earnest address in behalf of the Orphans, appealing to the liberality of the audience: at Mr. Stephens moved that the printing of the conclusion of which the Orphans sang "Charity," in a style which reflected much credit upon them and their tutor.

The mode of raising funds for the support of the Orphans was then explained by the Chairman, in some interesting remarks .-He stated that it required a subscription of forty dollars to make a life member, and two and a half a scholarship.

A donation of twenty-four dollars was received from the scholars of Mr. A. E. Bassford's bition given by them for the benefit of the Orphan Asylum. The following persons were made life members: Rev. J. C. Granberry, Mrs. Newman, the matron of the Asylum, Mrs. J. C. Granberry, the eldest child of Mr. Granberry, (after the required amount was raised on this membership, it was announced that there was no such person, but the money was given.) Miss Harriet Lane, Dr. F. J. Murphy, Dr. O. Fairfax, Dr. C. W. Chancellor, Dr. Harold Snowden, Dr. W. B. Gregory, Dr. J. C. Broun, Dr. M. M. Lewis, Sylvester Scott, Jas. S. Hallowell, and Rev. C. B. Dana. A note was read by the Secretary, from one who had for some time been an inmate of the Asylum, contributing "her mite," ($2.50,) her first earnings, for the education of en orphan, whereupon she was made a life member. Many scholarships were taken, and extra money subscribed and collected in other ways, amounting in all (with the exception of that taken in at the door, $43,18.) to about $1,100.

After the choir had sung another piece, on motion the thanks of the meeting were extended to the Rev. Mr. Granberry for his most excellent address. This compliment the Rev. gentleman acknowledged in some appropriate remarks.
